Vulcan Red Cross Drive $800 Over Objective

G. A. Shave, Assistant Commissioner of the Alberta Division, Canadian Red Cross Society, visited Vulcan on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

He spoke at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Monday evening and complimented the residents of Vulcan and district for their magnificent effort during the 1951 campaign.

"Not only did Vulcan and district exceed their quota of $1500, but they exceeded it by nearly $800 and that is very worthy of the highest commendation," he said.

The town and district contributed a total of $2,291.35 towards the Red Cross fund, P. A. Thomson, the campaign chairman, reported.

Mr. Shave outlined the work of the Red Cross in peacetime. He stressed the importance of people realizing that the peacetime projects of the Society are "just as important if not more important than the wartime project."

He spoke of the Blood Transfusion Service and reminded his listeners that sometimes people lose sight of the contribution this service makes to the patients in our hospitals.

The Red Cross official stated that this service was free to the patient, but that it required a lot of Red Cross funds "to put that blood into the hospital." He described briefly the technical work necessary to assure accuracy and said that while this province was trying to collect $400,000 as its part in the national drive it will still be necessary for a further $118,000 to be spent in Alberta in order to render all services. He reminded his audience that this money would come from the national office of the Society.

Mr. Shave spoke of the new Crippled Children's Hospital that was officially opened at Calgary March 3 of this year at a cost of $1,250,000. It was "a wonderful tribute and memorial to the generosity of Albertans," the speaker said. He pointed out the danger of taking the hospital for granted now that it was built, saying that the building of the hospital was truly a great accomplishment, but if it is to operate continued support is absolutely necessary.

He mentioned the recent Red Cross zoning developments that were taking place in the province. The load must, of sheer necessity, be spread further, he said. Branches like Vulcan are doing their best, but many other localities have not reorganized and are not conducting campaigns even though the Society's services are being rendered in those localities.

He urged the members to take the message of Red Cross to their hearts. "If we can raise money to support humanitarian services in time of war, then surely we can raise money for humanitarian services in time of peace," Mr. Shave concluded.

John Hunter Is Foothills Scout Commissioner

John Hunter of Vulcan was named Commissioner of the Foothills District Council of the Boy Scout Association, at the semi-annual meeting held Monday evening in High River.

Mr. Hunter replaces Tom Betton of High River, who has held the position of Commissioner for the past 30 years. Mr. Betton, whose fine work with the Scouting movement is well known throughout Alberta, and was named Honorary president, had found it necessary to retire from the strenuous duties he had carried up so well.

Since the Scouting movement was re-organized in Vulcan, in 1946, under the sponsorship of the L.O.O.F., after having disbanded during the war years, Mr. Hunter has taken a keen interest in the work of the movement. He was named president of the Group committee at that time, in which capacity he continued to serve for the next four years. He was then made president of the Foothills District Council.

Attending Monday night's meeting were provincial officers James Scott, Assistant Executive Provincial Commissioner, of Calgary; and F. S. Fry, also of Calgary, Assistant Provincial Commissioner, who gave an interesting address on Scouting, its aims and objects, and confirmed Mr. Hunter's appointment as Commissioner.

H. W. Nowby of Turner Valley, who has served as vice-president of the District Council, was made president. J. M. Keith of Turner Valley was named Assistant Commissioner by Mr. Hunter.

Plans were made to hold the annual Scout and Cub Rally in Vulcan, this year, on Saturday, June 2nd, when Cubs and Scouts from Brant, High River, Black Diamond, Lacombe and Vulcan will participate.

Schools-Municipal Rate is 31 Mills

County Ratepayers Will Benefit By Reduction in Mill Rate

The County of Vulcan No. 2 tax rate for the year 1951 was set at 31 mills at the meeting of the County Council held on Friday, April 13th. The rate is made up of 16 mills which it is estimated will be needed for school purposes and 15 mills for municipal purposes. In addition to the 31 mill rate, rates for hospital tax covering municipal hospital districts with lands in the County were set as follows:

Bassano Hospital District No. 6—15 Mills.
High River Hospital District No. 11—3 Mills.
Vulcan Hospital District No. 19—5 Mills.
Little Bow Hospital Dist. No. 25—10 Mills.

The Little Bow Hospital Mill rate includes 4 mills to cover the cost of the recent addition of medical services in the Little Bow area.

In setting the 1951 mill rates the Council was able to take advantage of the provincial government's recent tax reduction grant legislation and reduced the municipal mill rate in order to obtain a grant which is expected to amount to $30,000.00. A comparison of the 1951 tax rate in the County with the tax rate in the various areas forming the County shows that very substantial reduction in taxes will accrue to a majority of ratepayers. Ratepayers whose lands were in the former Bow Valley School Division will be reduced from 25 mills to 16 mills; ratepayers in the former Macleod School Division will be reduced from 19.5 mills to 16 mills; in the former Taber School Division the reduction is from 26 mills to 16 mills; and the Foothills School Division tax rate is reduced from 16.5 mills to 16 mills. The municipal rate in the former Municipal District of Blackie was 18 mills; the former District of Vulcan, 17 mills; the former Municipal District of Argyle, 20 mills; the former Municipal District of Barons, 18 mills and in Special Areas No. 4, 20 mills. These mill rates in 1951 will average 18 mills over the entire County and with the tax reduction grant, has been set at 15 mills.

Ratepayers in the former Municipal District of Blackie whose lands were included in the Bow Valley School Division and the Vulcan Hospital District will now pay a mill rate of 36 as against 49.5 for the year 1950. The former Municipal District of Blackie ratepayers whose lands were in the Foothills School Division and the Blackie Municipal Hospital will pay the regular 1951 rate of 36 mills as against 41 mills last year.

Taxes on lands in the Special Areas will be reduced from 31 mills to 36 mills on lands in the former Taber School Division and from 43 mills to 36 mills on lands in the former Bow Valley School Division of the Special Areas. Ratepayers of the former Municipal District of Argyle will receive a reduction from 45 mills to 36 mills and ratepayers in the former Municipal District of Barons will receive a reduction from 44 mills to 41 mills. Ratepayers in the former Municipal District of Vulcan will have their taxes remain practically on the same level as last year with the exception that the 3 per cent reduction grant has been earned. In some cases these ratepayers' lands will benefit in the reduced school mill rate.

The mill rates are further reduced when consideration is given to the fact that the Council continues the policy of the former Municipal District of Vulcan to allow 5 per cent discount for payment of taxes on or before June 30th of this year. It is expected that the tax notices will be forwarded to the ratepayers during the latter part of the month of May, which will give ample time to arrange for payments to take advantage of the discount.

The Budget, of which copies appear in this issue, provides for the expenditure of a total of $667,000.00. The principal item is the school cost of $279,000.00. The Council also plans to spend $191,000.00 on public works and consideration was given to an increased public works allotment to that portion of the County which was in the former Municipal District of Blackie, in view of the amount of cash surplus which came from that portion of the County.

Plans have been made to operate three elevating grading outfits in the District and three Blade Graders. The County also has made provision to operate 6 Motor Graders for maintenance. In order to carry out this program, it was necessary to provide for the purchase of 2 large tractors and 2 more Motor graders.

It is expected that the total amount of the grant, including school grant, which will be received from the provincial government, will be approximately $182,000.00, which is slightly over 28 per cent of the total estimated budget.

The Council passed a motion to proceed with the construction of the Chronic and Convalescent Hospital. A. W. Hodges, Architect, of Calgary has been engaged to prepare the plans and specifications which calls for a 36 bed hospital. It is estimated that the cost will be approximately $200,000.00, of which the Dominion and Provincial Government grant will amount to $108,000.00, leaving a balance of $90,000.00 or $100,000.00 to be borne by the ratepayers of the County. Present plans are for a 20 year debenture which is estimated to cost less than 1 mill on the County assessment. The County also expects to share in the Provincial government's grant of 50 per cent of the operating cost.

Councillor Donald McNeven was appointed County representative to the Foothills Fulltime Health Unit.

Reduce Requisitions

At the School Committee meeting held on Monday, routine business principally was transacted. Arrangements were made to place insurance on the County schools. The Committee decided to join the Alberta School Trustees Association and subscribe to the Association's magazine. Arrangements were also made to procure additional van service in the schools at Champion. The Committee considered a letter from the Secretary of the local teachers' association asking for a new agreement. It was decided to appoint a Committee to meet with the teachers' negotiation committee for a preliminary discussion. The Committee also voted to reduce the special requisition of the Town of Vulcan by $1,500.00, the village of Champion by $1,000.00 and the village of Carmanagay by $450.00. The 1 mill special requisition in the Arrowwood school district was also cancelled. Chairman McKay was authorized to make arrangements for the completion of the Brant school.

SPRING FEVER

It is time to get out the spring tonics. Take sassafras tea or any of the old standby remedies, but remember that spring fever seems to be a malady that has perplexed science year in and year out. At least, nobody has come up with the idea of a National Spring Fever Week, or a campaign such as Dimes for Down-the-Dumps.

We just seem to accept the inevitable, spring after spring. The boys get out their marbles, the girls join in a friendly game of Hop-Scotch, while folks in general try to cheer up each other with stories of the first gopher, bluebird, or robin. Also about this time of year some kind-hearted barnyard fowl usually arouses us to renewed endeavor. We forget all about the Communist threat back fence while you slowly inhale the friendship offered by the man next door. Exercise vigorously in the backyard or garden, using the familiar tools found in the coal shed or garage. Relax in the sunshine of youth found in any playground where children are romping. Enjoy a good laugh each day as you glance over the quick drug ads in your daily paper. Last, but very important, keep all bottles in the medicine cabinet tightly corked. Keep this treatment handy, in mind, at all times, because quick application is essential for a sure cure.

The following couplet is attributed to Bob Burdette, who was a better minister for being a humorist, and was published in the Christian Register.

"Tell my trustees when I am dead that they need shed no tears; For I shall then be no more dead than they have been for years."

The Happy Day

A prescription by Dr. O. B. Joyful, 21 Sunshine Avenue, Office Hours: 6 a.m. to 12 p.m. A little dash of water cold. A little leaven of prayer. A little bit of sunshine gold. Dissolved in morning air; Add to your meal some merriment. Add thought for kith and kin. And then, as a prime ingredient, A plenty of work thrown in. Flavor it all with essence of love. And a little dash of play; Then a nice, old book and a glance above. Complete the happy day. Sig: Take daily and repeat. —Publisher and Author Unknown.

The Sweet Clover Weevil

The sweet clover weevil has caused considerable damage to stands of sweet clover in Southern Alberta during the past two or three years, and indications are that this pest is becoming firmly established.

Eradication of the sweet clover weevil is very difficult because it is very active and migrates rapidly. Control of its depredations may be obtained by cultural methods or chemical means.

It has been found that shallow tilling immediately after the removal of the hay crop is an effective means to destroy the developing beetle, which is then in the larval and pupal stage, and is susceptible to the drying effects of the sun and air. Up to 90 per cent of the weevil population can be destroyed by this method.

New plantings of sweet clover should be separated as far as possible from previous plantings. This practice reduces the danger of weevils migrating from the old fields during the fall.

Chemicals such as chlordane and Aldrin have given good results. A number of trials were conducted during 1949 to test the effectiveness of a chlordane spray. It was found that 1 pound of technical chlordane per acre, applied with 8 to 10 gallons of water gave satisfactory results. With this amount of water a good coverage of foliage is obtained, thereby facilitating the action of the chlordane.

Since the adults are present in the spring on second year clover, a thorough spraying or dusting with one of these chemicals just when the clover leaf buds are opened, will kill most of the insects and thus prevent egg laying.

When chlordane has been used, all livestock, especially milk cows, should be kept off treated vegetation for at least 10 days. If Aldrin has been used, livestock should not be allowed to graze on the treated vegetation for at least 21 days.

LAND VALUES INCREASE

The average value of farmland in Canada for 1950 was $43.00 per acre, according to information received from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. This represents an increase of 79.2 per cent over the 1935-39 average of $24.00 per acre. R. E. English, Statistician, Alberta Department of Agriculture, points out that the upward trend in farm land values from prewar levels reflects the relative changes which have occurred in the price level of farm products and of the things that farmers buy. The Bureau's index of farm prices of agricultural products for 1950 was 153 per cent above the 1935-39 level while the index of prices of commodities and services used by farmers, including living costs, had advanced 95 per cent from prewar.

The average value of land in Alberta for the period 1935-39 was estimated to be $16.00 per acre, advises Mr. English. It was the same in 1951 but rose $1.00 each year to $21.00 per acre in 1948. Since then the rise has been more rapid as follows 1947, $25.00; 1948, $31.00; 1949, $33.00; and 1950, $35.00. Thus the increase in land values in Alberta over the last ten years was nearly 120 per cent. Only Manitoba registered a greater percentage increase—from $17 to $39.00 or 130 per cent up.

YOUR GOVERNMENT

(By Andy Snaddon)

The 4th session of the 11th Alberta legislature, just concluded, was relatively quiet and generally reflected the prosperity of the province. The outlook for the coming year, barring international complications, would seem to be a generally pleasant one.

Perhaps the single group of citizens most affected by the legislation was the car owner. What was actually a tax adjustment meant that the one cent tax on purple gas was dropped, while the ordinary gasoline tax took a rise of one cent a gallon, to 19 cents a gallon.

However, the car driver received some compensation in the form of reduced license costs. So while persons who drive a good deal will actually pay a higher tax, because of the higher cost of gasoline, the average motorist will probably receive a slight reduction.

And car owners also have something else to look forward to. For the government announced it would start a program of driver's license tests for new drivers and for drivers involved in accidents. Further an annual mechanical inspection of cars will be demanded. Details of these programs were not outlined.

Of the gas tax money 40 per cent will be set aside for municipal assistance. From this fund grants will be paid direct to municipalities and also additional sums will be provided if the municipalities cut their tax rate. There was opposition argument about the plan based on the ground that districts, which most needed financial help, would not qualify for the conditional grant. It will take a little time to assess how extensive the financial assistance will be in each area.

Something new—and unique in Canada—was the plan for a provincial annuity scheme. This will be open to any Canadian citizen, three years resident in Alberta and it was announced that initial payment by the purchaser would be set as low as $10. Maximum annuity available would be $1,500 a year. Schedule of contributions and payments have not yet been released by the government.

The idea behind the plan is to make it an investment for people of moderate income, giving them a chance to invest in their future. The plan will be backed by the provincial treasury. One unusual feature is that at any time funds invested may be withdrawn if the owner wishes to do so. There was some objection to the idea of a provincial annuity scheme in the dying moments of the session. Liberal leader, J. Harper Prowse, said the Dominion had an annuity plan and he to subsidize it from general revenue to keep it actually sound. He thought it was a field adequately covered by private firms and that government subsidy was not justified as it would be paid to a class of people who did not need it.

Fuel was an important item on the legislative agenda. In these columns we have already referred to the permission to export a limited amount of natural gas to Montana. However, another item, which may be almost as important is a move to protect Alberta's important coal industry.

The federal government has paid a subvention or grant toward the shipment of Alberta's coal to Ontario. This was to be dropped, but the province, along with coal men in Alberta, was hoping that some other arrangement would be worked out. Information is that this will soon be announced and it may mean the difference between Alberta's coal industry being severely retarded and still being able to function.

Last year, just after the session in Edmonton closed, we visited another legislature in another province. The difference was most noticeable. The members knew what was needed in many cases but could not figure out how to finance it. In Alberta we are still fortunate enough that the problem of expanding the money is greater than raising it. Which is perhaps a good reason why Albertans should not be backward about telling their government what they want.

Cartwright-Harris

The Chapel in Mount Royal College, Calgary was the setting chosen by Miss Audrey Iona Harris for her marriage to Fred George Cartwright, which was solemnized Saturday, April 14, at 2 p.m., when Rev. W. J. Collett officiated at the double ring service for the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter I. Harris of Champion and the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Cartwright of Calgary before an altar banked with potted ferns, carnations and daffodils that were reflected in the glow of lighted Cathedral tapers in crystal holders.

The petite youthful bride entered the Chapel on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was a floor length model of heavy white Poe-De-Sol, styled with a sculptured bodice and featuring a dropped shoulder yoke of nylon sheer encircled with wide shirred drape which formed pointed cap sleeves. The skirt fell in circular folds from a fitted hip-line and her long mittens were of the same material as her gown. Her embroidered net finger tip length veil fell from a braided coronet of self material and she carried a bouquet of American beauty roses with loops and streamers of white taffeta ribbon.

The bridesmaid, Miss Elaine Granlin of Champion, was gowned in apple green nylon marquisette styled with strapless bodice over which was worn a shoulder cape of self material, edged with wide gathered ruffles. The long bouffant skirt featured a flounce that draped from across the front hemline up to the back closing of the gown where it ended in bustle effect. Her wrist length mittens and fluted headress were of self material and she carried a colonial

Tea and Fashion Show

The Women's Association of the United Church held a daffodil tea, Saturday, April 14, in the community hall in conjunction with the spring fashion show presented by Jones Store with a capacity crowd in attendance. The fashion parade preceded the tea. Mrs. E. Rhodes played pleasing piano selections throughout the afternoon and Mrs. M. Jones gave a decorative running commentary during the showing of the smart spring styles for matrons, young matrons, Meses and children.

Spring blossoms were used for decoration at the numerous daffodil appointed tea tables where a delicious lunch was served following the fashion show. Those acting as models were: Mrs. J. C. Anderson, Mrs. C. Versluis, Mrs. E. Fraser, Mrs. Glen Racher, Misses Gerda Jacobson, Ruth Stewart, Caroline Howz, Yvonne Fraser, Aileen Beaudier and Elaine Groves. Masters Garth Racher, Gary Fisher, and little Sylvia Matlock and Wanda Fisher.

The prize for the best poster made by a grade IX student, advertising the tea and show, was won by Miss Joyce Tindal.

Home Movie Show

A large group of friends from Champion and Vulcan were invited to attend the showing of several reels of black and white and colored films of the Golden Wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coe, taken a few weeks ago at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Harris. The showing was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Coe in the Vulcan district, Tuesday evening, April 10 with Art Cutforth in charge of the 16 mm machine. Mr. Cutforth showed several other films during the evening, one was a sound picture of the origin and history of Newfoundland; too, all very interesting and exceedingly entertaining. Naturally, the Golden Wedding pictures were the highlight of the enjoyable evening.

The hostess was assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Coe of Champion, in serving a very lovely lunch at the close of the showing.

Joint Bridal Shower

A joint bridal shower complimentary to two brides-elect, Miss Audrey Harris and Barbara Dowling, was held at the home of Mrs. L. Latiff, Wednesday April 11, when members of the local chapter of the O.E.S. and relatives of the principals were present. Bou-nosagay of deep yellow rose and tulip buds encircled with a frill of gold lace and matching streamers.

Gordon Jepson of Calgary attended the groom and the guests were ushered by Mack Cartwright of Carstairs, brother of the bride. Mrs. Albert Wright of Lethbridge played the wedding music and while the register was being signed Mrs. Wright sang "Because" when she was accompanied on the piano by her daughter, Miss Gwen Wright.

Following the Church rites a reception was held in the Sky Room where a profusion of spring blossoms were used for decoration. The mothers of the bride and groom assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. Harris chose for her daughter's wedding a draped afternoon frock of charm blue crepe with gold beaded trim, small grey hat and accessories to tone. Her corsage was of pink roses encircled with rosebuds. Mrs. Cartwright wore a pale pink nylon printed ensemble, small green hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of deep pink roses and rosebuds.

The bride's table was centred with an attractively decorated three tiered wedding cake flanked by lighted tapers and vases of carnations and daffodils. S. B. Jepson of Calgary asked the blessing and Clyde Coe, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast to the bride, recalling to memory eventful happenings in the bride's life to date, to which the groom responded. Mrs. Wright sang a solo "Bless This House" dedicating it to the bridal couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright left later on their honeymoon trip to points in the United States. On their return they will reside in Champion. To travel the bride donned a grey and navy two-tone suit, topped with a shortie coat, small navy and grey hat and matching accessories. A corsage of deep red roses completed her ensemble.

Guests were present from: Vulcan, Barons, Carstairs, Champion, Granum, Lethbridge and Calgary.

TESTS OF VEHICLES ARE MADE COMPULSORY

A bill to amend The Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act, passed at the recent session of the legislature, makes careless driving an offence for which one may be arrested without warrant, while penalties also are provided for certain infractions.

Of major interest is the action of the legislature to require compulsory inspection of all motor vehicles in the province, commencing July 1.

After that date no person will be permitted to drive any motor vehicle that has not been inspected within a 12-month period, and has not been certified and given a sticker indicating it is safe to be on the road.

The provincial government also has announced that 35 R.C.M.P. constables will be added to the Alberta force for highway patrol duties. This will mean a 24-hour patrol service on all main highways.

South Alberta Looms In 1951 Oil Picture

(Lethbridge Herald) ac and Union Oil of California companies. These four gas fields have a proven reserve of 405 billion cubic feet of gas. Pipe for the gas line is already on the ground and the construction of the pipeline from the fields into Montana will start soon.

This huge reserve is only a fraction of the vast proven gas reserves of the Lethbridge district. As shown on the table on the accompanying map prepared by Frank R. Henry, oil operator, Lethbridge district has a total of two trillion, 347 billion cubic feet of gas reserves. Further exploration and development will likely increase these reserves greatly, says Mr. Henry, dealing with oil activity in the south.

PINCHER CREEK
 The Pincher Creek gas field, discovered in 1948, is one of the greatest single gas fields or structures in the world. It has demonstrated wells capable of yielding in excess of 80 million feet of gas per day, accompanied by 3,000 barrels of high gravity oil per well per day. Its total reserves are considered to be 1,580 billion cubic feet.

From the geological standpoint, that portion of Montana immediately bordering on Alberta is a part of the Lethbridge district, oil accumulations having no respect for and crossing at will, political boundaries. The Cutbank and Kevin-Sunburst oil fields of Montana have produced over 120 million barrels of oil to date. As shown on the map, this production is being extended over into Alberta.

Two important oil discoveries were made towards the end of 1950, in the Lethbridge district when the Barons and Del Bonita oil fields were brought into commercial production.

BARONS
 Barons Oil Ltd. completed its well at Barons, on November 27, 1950. While there was not enough field storage or tankage for a complete demonstration of its maximum capacity, the well appeared to be capable of several hundred barrels per day, flowing. The gravity of the oil is 33 to 34 degrees and is clean, free of water. The well was allowed to flow until Feb. 5th, 1951, at which time it was put on the pump. During the time the well was flowing, it was difficult to choke it back below 170 barrels per day, without killing it, due to waxing of the tubing and other causes. The Conservation Board has given the Barons well an allowable of 50 barrels per day; with a maximum of 75 barrels per day for any one day and it is believed that this rate can be easily maintained for a long time.

The Barons oil Company, with an 11,800 acre block of land surrounding the discovery well, is the largest holder in the field. However, the development of the field will be very rapid, since Barons Oil has made a number of "farm-out" deals, whereby other operators will immediately commence the drilling of test wells. Central-Del Rio-Barons No. 1 is now drilling.

DEL BONITA
 The National Cordasun No. 2 well at Del Bonita was completed on Dec. 14, 1950, flowing at an initial rate of 270 barrels per day of 38 to 40 gravity water-free oil. It produced 2,305 barrels during the last 15 days of December, or at a rate of about 154 barrels per day, flowing. During January, it produced 1,578 barrels, and 1,168 barrels during February of "clean" oil, free of water.

National and Cordasun will immediately re-drill Cordasun No. 1 well a direct north offset to Cordasun No. 2, from a depth of 4,000 feet. Ben C. W. Hyde, a Kansas operator, will drill a well one-half mile south of Cordasun No. 2, on a 50-50 farmout arrangement from National. A northwest offset to Cordasun No. 1 together with a northwest stepout well from Cordasun No. 1 are contemplated for this spring. These latter two wells will particularly look for production in the lower Cretaceous sands, believed to overlap onto the Del Bonita structure, down plunge from Cordasun No. 1 well.

SPRING COULEE

As shown on the map, Spring Coulee and Del Bonita are two domes on a long anticlinal fold. The National Petroleum Corporation completed its Malmberg No. 1 well last spring, swabbing at an estimated initial rate of some 10 barrels per hour. However, this well ran into mechanical difficulties and was never put on steady production.

The Spring Coulee Oil Corp. Ltd. spudded its No. 1 well in LSD 10 Sec. 11, T-4, R-23-W4th, on March 31. This will be an interesting test both because it is well located structurally and because it will make an exhaustive test of all probable productive horizons, upper sands as well as Madison lime.

BAROID SERVICE

Spring Coulee Oil Corp. has retained the Baroid well logging service to supervise the operations. Baroid will have a mud truck, core analysis truck and trained experts on the well 24 hours per day. The experts watch for the "drill off," that is, the change of formation from shale to sand. When a sand is penetrated for two feet, the bit is held at the same depth and the fluid allowed to circulate until returns from bottom are secured.

The mud at all times flows through the company's truck, where the presence of any oil or gas is instantly detected. When oil or gas shows, a core is taken, and analyzed. If production is indicated a drill stem test is run; if this is successful, casing is cemented and the well put on production.

HEAVY FILING

During the period that has elapsed since the granting of the Montana gas export permit, some 450,000 acres of reservations have been taken out in the Manyberries Pendant d'Oreille area, southeast of Lethbridge. This, added to the millions of other acres under reservation in the area covered by the above map, means that an estimated 20 geophysical crews will be busy in the Lethbridge area this spring and summer. This may be followed up by a drilling campaign.

QUEENSTOWN

While driving home from Calgary last Friday in his truck, Mr. Fitzpatrick was run into from behind by another truck at Chestermere Lake, both trucks receiving slight damage. Mr. Mullett, driving from Calgary in his car in the storm, also received slight damage to his car when hit by another vehicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Laid drove to Calgary in the height of the storm on Friday. From the railroad track this side of Shouldice to two miles on the other side it was nothing but a black, dense cloud of dust, outside of that there was only an occasional short strip of dust to drive through. The wind would get the better of the truck occasionally and force it over to the other side of the road. Coming home on Saturday you could see by the silt piled in the ditches along the road that the fields drifted badly in places.

Andrew Laid is visiting his daughter Mrs. C. Ferguson in Calgary for a few days.

Farewell Party

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schultz who are moving to Calgary, a farewell party was held

She was a very active member of these organizations for years. The pupils of the school presented them both with a pair of sheets and pillow cases in appreciation of the good work he did while being janitor of the school for the past few years. A collection was taken and also given to Mr. Schultz by Mr. C. Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Echultz came to Queenstown 20 years ago from Cheadle, taking over the dray business. A sing song, cards and games were enjoyed and a lovely buffet lunch was served by the ladies of the community.

MOSSLEIGH

The Rev. N. R. Jackson, who is replacing the student minister, Mr. L. McArthur, held his first service in the Mossleigh church Sunday morning. The church service is held every Sunday at 10:30.

On Wednesday evening, April 11, the Mossleigh Home and School held a special ceremony for the hanging of the Home and School charter. Letters were read from Messrs. Laverty and Gillanders, Mrs. Bosh and Mrs. Simmons offering congratulations. Mrs. Wm. Burgess, former president, presented the charter to Mrs. Ballard the president. Other speakers were Mr. Lindberg and Larry Andros representing the Students Union.

Women's softball and men's handball teams have been organized and practising is going on, on Sunday afternoons.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

For the benefit of those who are spreading malicious gossip, I would like to say that if they were as conscientious regarding their homes as Mrs. Scobie is they would have less time for gossip.

The person who started this is one who has never been near her home and knows nothing of her home affairs.

Mrs. Scobie feels quite capable of handling her own affairs, and doubts if these people could give her any information which would be of benefit.

There are many ways by which these people could improve their spare time, rather than making up gossip and circulating it to try to harm a citizen who can at least mind her own business and does so at all times and to whom gossip and slander are a sign of lack of good morals.

(Signed)
Mrs. J. Scobie, Vulcan.

Power Interrupted By Electrical Fire

WE REGRET very much the inconvenience caused our customers by the interruption to your electric service on Tuesday night, April 17.

The interruption was caused by an electrical fire during a wet snowstorm, which burned off one of our main line structures.

Recently, a new 132,000 volt transmission line was constructed from our plants west of Calgary to the Crows Nest Pass to connect with our other line at Macleod and Lethbridge. One of the purposes of this line was to provide a complete ring, so as to safeguard against interruptions such as occurred on Tuesday.

Unfortunately, last Saturday one of these structures in the mountains on the new line was washed out by spring run-off water. This put the new line out of service temporarily. Had the new line been in operation, only a very short interruption to your service would have resulted.
